Learning made simple

GLOBUS
INFOCOM LIMITED

A breakout room
for individual attention

Breakout Rooms allow teachers to split learners into multiple smaller groups facilitating a more personalized learning experience and peer-to-peer participation. Breakout rooms can assist all sorts of students' needs and wants.

Comprehensive assessments with detailed monitoring

Access to eminent attributes like online cheat-proof assessments, projects, and assignments, quiz tools, online test conduction and report generation, auto certificate generation, and proctor exams to avoid cheating to help learners evaluate their growth
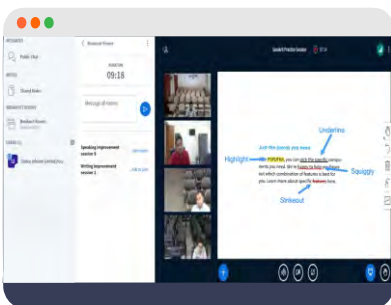

Create your own
Content Library

We provide opportunities for both teachers and students to construct their own content library for easy reference in the classroom. Teachers and students can prepare a list of multimedia files like presentations, documents, PDFs, and excels before commencing the classroom preventing last-minute hustle to conduct effective sessions.

Advanced Gamification
for an engaging session

We deliver tailor-made gamified lessons to make concepts easier to understand. Perfectly conceptualized and well-designed gamified sessions help in delivering interactive lessons engaging students without losing sight of their learning objectives.
Enhance virtual engagement
among learners

Option to record live classes, sharing and learning by uploading documents, notes, videos, and even screen, discussion platforms like Chatroom, Hand Rise options, Emojis choices allow students to ensure active participation in learning. Also, Videos can be optimized in the resolution of low, medium, and high allowing you to serve all levels of WIFI bandwidth.

Guided Career
Pathways

We provide you with proper guidance in choosing the defined domains shaping and creating your learning paths. Based on students' competencies, we assure suggestive assessed platforms following students' overall results and assignments.

Customizable creative course creation for teachers

We understand what teachers need; therefore, we have come up with a better option of customizable creative courses for teachers to enhance flexibility and productivity. Teachers are given the freedom to prepare coursework, quiz questions, and many more unlocking immersive experiences.
